SUNNY SQUIBBLES
 In spite of all the sacrifices made to acquire freedom and the blessings of good government for this country, you would have to get out a search warrant and writ of habeas corpus to induce some people to go to the polls.

While ex-Kaiser Bill has an income of $600,000 a year, millions of people who are bereft of their sons and daughters by his act, are having to receive public aid.

The people who think that a college education amounts to nothing might explain how it happens that eighteen out of 28 American presidents were college men.

INDUSTRIAL CLASSES BEGIN TONIGHT

Industrial classes hold their first meeting tonight at the Woman's Club House, 7 Cherry Street, from 7 to 10 o'clock. There has been a good preliminary registration and some classes are nearly full, but other girls will be welcome to register tonight or at any time before Tuesday. Some classes begin instruction tonight. Dressmaking, tatting, knitting, embroidery, crocheting, button-hole making, basketry and dancing. Girls are asked to bring sewing kits, materials and patterns, crochet hooks and cotton, tatting shuttles and other tools and materials.

On Tuesday will begin classes in typewriting, English, beauty parlor and nursing. Girls registering for typewriting are asked to provide typewriter paper. Those in beauty parlor are asked to provide brush, comb and towel and a cake of physicians' and surgeons' soap. There will be a limited supply of soap and typewriting paper on sale at the club house.

Admission is 25 cents an evening or else the presentation of membership ticket of the Girls' Community League. Such tickets ($1.00) will be on sale tonight. Girls may register for two classes without extra charge.

Bancroft Sentenced to Five Years

 tion was negotiated with Mr. Bigelow personally with in his store.

"It may seem strange that I did not go on the stand and defend myself. Yet it would have placed me in a very awkward position. Several years ago I was implicated in a big deal with several other promoters, who deserted me, leaving me alone to make right the wrongs that they had done. I have since been trying to live down that scandal. I have changed my name in an endeavor to wipe out that past. It was to avoid publicity that I did not defend myself."

"I am going to make a confession. During the past year, I have had 17 hemorrhages. I have had physicians standing over me with a hypodermic needle to ease my pain. Yet my suffering is nothing compared to that which my family must suffer for my conviction. I have been confined closely for the past four months—a fact which is detrimental to my health as I am subject to consumption. At the apex of my left lung today, a physician will testify the traces of that disease can still be found."

Toward the state's attorney, I have nothing but the best of feeling. I hold nothing against him as he merely has done what has seemed to him to be his duty. At the very time that he was prosecuting me I was endeavoring to secure him as my counsel. I leave to the good graces of the court to decide for me what seems best."

Thereupon, Bancroft sat down to hear State's Attorney Frank D. Thompson of Barton again repeat the charges against him. That formality concluded Judge Fish pronounced sentence.

BARNET

The local W. C. T. U. gave a reception last Wednesday evening to the teachers of the town in Odd Fellows hall. It was well attended by teachers and the general public. Mrs. Gregg, president of the local society, presided. A pleasing program had been arranged which was enjoyed by all present. Miss May Gillilan, county demonstrator for the Bureau gave a talk on feeding children, laying stress on the breakfast that it should be nourishing and light and digestible. Miss Rogers sang two songs and Mrs. Jennie Moore of Passumpsic read a paper on the relation of the W. C. T. U. to the schools. Refreshments of small cakes and punch were served and a general social time was enjoyed during which Dade Gilchrist and Virginia Elliott furnished music.
